iPad

Students in this course will receive an iPad and case to use for the semester. The iPad will be loaded with applications to aid you in your writing and reporting. Guides for how to use the iPad and the applications are in the Week 2 module in Carmen. iPads will be handed out Week 2 and they are due back on the last day of class.

Grades

Assignment or category	Points
In-Class assignments (150 points—10 points each) You will have a variety of hands- on experiences on which to write in class. Your participation in and completion of these activities is key to your skill development, and will each be worth 10 points. They include simulated news events, coverage, write-ups on guest speakers, video and audio storytelling assignments, etc. These points can only be earned if you are in class for the activities, as they cannot be made up.	150
AP Style/ News Quiz Games (100 points—10 points per week/10 weeks) Every week we will work on our AP Style and news consumption with a quizstyle game. We will be divided into teams, and you will work with your team to determine the answer to questions provided in class. We will then come together and see who gets the most answers correct. The team with the most gets a bonus point. To be successful, you must begin to write everything you can in AP Style and read news from a variety of sources, including legacy (Columbus Dispatch, New York Times, CNN, USA Today, Washington Post) and new media (Huffington Post, Slate, Buzzfeed).	100
News Story Almost anything can be considered news somewhere in the Ohio State community. We will find a story idea around campus and develop that idea into a news story using research, real-life, inperson interviewing and journalistic writing in the "inverted pyramid" style for submission to The Lantern. We will keep the story simple— something that is newsworthy to Ohio State readers. We will focus on the Who, What, When, Where, Why and How of each story. Examples would be action by president's office, new fee, new business, new appointment, sporting event, etc.	100
Pin the tail on the Campus	100

(100 points) This in-class activity will test your reporting skills in the real world on deadline. It is a game and a challenge, and will include reporting, writing, photography, videography and interviewing.
Feature articles have more of a "lifespan" than news articles and provide for more descriptive writing with a focus on people. These do not utilize the "inverted pyramid," but a style called the "writing hourglass," which features anecdotes, a "nut graph" and a body filled with descriptions and facts. You will write one feature article this semester on a topic related to the Ohio State community.	150
Cumulative to the ninth week, this will be made of two parts and last three days: Day 1: AP and current events quiz (50 points) Day 2 and 3: Deadline writing, editing and rewriting of a story on a topic provided in class for submission to The Lantern	200
Final The final project will allow you to show off your new skills. You will work as a part of a team to research a journalism-related topic and create a comprehensive project that is displayed on a Wordpress blog.	200
Total	1,000 Points and 100%

See course schedule, below, for due dates

Attendance

Attendance is expected for every class period. This is a flipped classroom where all readings and videos are expected to be completed prior to class. In-class assignments will help students to gain the skills necessary to complete the learning objectives. These activities may not be made up without a valid medical or university excuse. Documentation must be provided.

Late assignments

Assignments turned in after the deadline will only be accepted with a valid medical or university excuse. It is the student's responsibility to be sure the assignment submitted correctly. Please check your Carmen folder after submission to ensure the upload is there and complete. Students who know of an impending excused absence should notify the instructor with documentation ahead of the absence to arrange a makeup. Makeups must be requested and turned in within 1 week of the original due date.

Extra credit

There is a maximum of 20 extra-credit points available in this class, which will be applied to the final class point total. It may earn it by:

- 1. Participating the outside class activities identified during the semester (5 points per activity)
- 2. Take part in School of Communication research, and receive 5 points per activity.
- 3. If you submit a story BEYOND the ones you write for this class to The Lantern, and it gets published with only your by-line! All extra credit must be reported via Carmen by the last day of class.

Grading scale

93–100: A 90–92.9: A-87–89.9: B+ 83–86.9: B 80–82.9: B-77–79.9: C+ 73–76.9: C 70–72.9: C-67–69.9: D+ 60–66.9: D

Please note: Carmen and Buckeyelink do not round up grades. Your grades will be exactly what you have earned and will not be rounded up. Extra credit will be offered for students who wish to earn a chance to improve grades.

Faculty feedback and response time

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-HELP at any time if you have a technical problem.)

Grading and feedback

For assignments, you can generally expect feedback within 10-14 days.

E-mail

I will reply to e-mails within 24 hours on school days.

Instructor communication

At times announcements will be made to the class via Carmen Announcements and sent through a Carmen message. Please regularly check both to ensure you do not miss a communication. Make sure your Carmen messages are not sent to your Clutter folder.

Attendance, participation, and discussions

Communication guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Please visit the Professionalism page in the Week 1 module. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: This course is intended to prepare you for future communications as a professional. Assignments should be approached in this manner. Please proofread, edit, and include appropriate language.
- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Furthermore, rude or impatient communications are generally not appreciated in professional situations. Please consider your words as if you were a professional when communicating with other students, the instructor, and the teaching assistant.

Academic integrity policy

Policies for this course

- Reusing past work: In general, you are prohibited in university courses from turning in work from a past class to your current class, even if you modify it. If you want to build on past research or revisit a topic you've explored in previous courses, please discuss the situation with me.
- Collaboration and informal peer-review: The course includes many opportunities for formal collaboration with your classmates. While study groups and peer-review of major written projects is encouraged, remember that comparing answers on a quiz or assignment is not permitted. If you're unsure about a particular situation, please feel free just to ask ahead of time.
- Group projects: This course includes group projects, which can be stressful for students when it comes to dividing work, taking credit, and receiving grades and feedback. I have attempted to make the guidelines for group work as clear as possible for each activity and assignment, but please let me know if you have any questions.

Academic Misconduct

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/

Accessibility accommodations for students with disabilities

Requesting accommodations

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know via email immediately so that we can privately discuss options. You are also welcome to register with Student Life Disability Services to establish reasonable accommodations. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion.
