You would be expected at a job every day and I expect you to be in class every day. You will perform best in this class by being in attendance. Deadlines are a significant aspect of the communication professions. Deadlines will be strictly enforced. This is an opportunity for cooperative learning on your part and mine.

TOTAL: 400 points

* Group members will all receive the grade earned by the entire group for Sections 1 & 2 and the Final Plan, but each grade will be weighted based on peer evaluation to determine individuals' final scores. See Final Project Assignment or Peer Evaluation Form on Carmen for details. Beyond peer evaluations, students not actively participating in/contributing to their groups will be subject to grade penalties beyond the peer evaluation scores.

ASSIGNMENTS:

Group Project/Section 1 (50 points) - A 15-20 page document to include a mission statement, situation analysis, secondary research, primary research outline, problem and goal statements. Peer evaluation scores impact this grade (see note below).

Group Project/Section 2 (50 points) - A 15-20 page document that will include primary research findings, target publics, message, objectives, strategies, tactics and evaluation. Section 2 will also include a budget and timetable. Peer evaluation scores impact this grade (see note below).

Group Project/Final Plan (100 points) - A professional hard copy plan that combines Sections 1 & 2 as well as an oral presentation to the client and accompanying slides. Two copies of the final campaign will be submitted to the instructor and copies of the slides will be provided to the instructor and client. Peer evaluation scores and attendance at the mandatory run-through and all days of presentations impact this grade (see note below).

Group Project/Oral Presentation (30 points) – 12-minute presentation to client.

Peer Evaluations – The ability to be an effective team player, work with different personalities and still produce excellent work for a client is crucial for developing communication campaigns. For this reason, group members will be evaluated by their peers at each major project milestone (after Section 1, Section 2 and the Final Plan). The peer evaluation will be used as a weight on the scores of each section and the Final Plan to determine individuals' final scores. For example, if the group earns 100/100 on the Final Plan, each group member will have (100 x peer evaluation) pts. The peer evaluation score will range from 0 to 1. Scores on the first and second peer eval give you the opportunity to talk to your group and ensure fair evaluations and even distribution of work moving forward.

Exams – (2 @ 40 points each) – Each exam will be comprised of multiple-choice and true/false questions from the text, course readings and class notes. Exams must be taken when scheduled. There are no make-up exams. There will be no study guides.

Research/Case Study Assignment (10 points) – You will review a Case Study to be determined. Objectives of this two page review will include a summary, overview, an objective analysis, subjective conclusions and writing mechanics. Studying the successes and failures of others is one way to be more effective in public relations.

Client Visit Memo (10 points) – After the client prepares you for developing a campaign around their business you will need to do a follow up memo that summarizes the objectives of the meeting, adding additional key findings and action items. It should be a one-page professional memo that is thorough, well developed and error-free.

Variable Points (70 points) – In-class assignments are determined by the instructor and may include such activities as pop quizzes, small group exercises, etc. Points are given in increments of 5-10 points at a time and may not be made up. Variable points cannot be made up even with an excused absence because they are worth such a small percentage of the final grade. There are no extra credit opportunities in this course.

COURSE POLICIES:

Attendance & Participation: Regular attendance is key to being successful in Public Communication Campaigns. Poor attendance will adversely affect team and individual performance and grades. If a student misses more than the equivalent of one week of classes during a regular 15-week semester, the final course grade may be lowered one full letter grade. Because Communication 4337 is a team-based interactive class, students should seriously consider withdrawing from the course if they must miss more than the equivalent of one week of classes. ACTIVE participation in class discussion and exercises is expected.

Assignments: The instructor includes in advance the tentative schedule for the semester. It announces in advance the schedule for each assignment. Assignments must be handed in on time. The instructor is under no obligation to allow make-up assignments. NO LATE assignments will be accepted.

Plagiarism: Using another person's research or using large verbatim sections of information from the work of another will be considered plagiarism. Students who have plagiarized will be reported to the Dean and penalized. The penalty is severe. A grade of zero will be given for the assignment, and possibly failure for the entire course. If unsure, give credit to your source.

Course Content: Please complete reading assignments by the assigned date. The text is designed to give both a sound theoretical foundation and practical skills for speechmaking. To complete assignments correctly and to perform well on exams, it is essential that you read the text.

Academic Misconduct: It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by University Rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you violated the University's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me.
