This course is designed as an introduction to interpersonal communication. The course will provide knowledge about principles of interpersonal communication and interpersonal communication competencies.

Instructor

Instructor: Kara Rader
Email address: rader.175@osu.edu
Online office hours: TBA or by appointment.

Course description

Analysis of the role of interpersonal communication to begin relationships, achieve intimacy, sustain a certain relational status and terminate relationships. Prerequisite: Not open to students with credit for 320.

Course learning goals

1. To gain knowledge about interpersonal communication and interpersonal processes: interpersonal communication principles and competencies; the role of culture and the self in interpersonal communication; the importance of listening and social perception processes; features of effective verbal and nonverbal messages;

2. To gain knowledge about the functions of interpersonal communication: Developing relationships with others; providing social support; influencing others; and managing interpersonal conflict

3. To learn the role of interpersonal communication in family and life-span issues

4. To practice interpersonal communication skills: To reflect upon your own interpersonal communication patterns and their implications for behavior and relationships, and to strategize how you might improve; to think critically about how interpersonal messages may influence others; and to practice communication skills.

5. To engage in theory application: to be able to apply theoretical concepts to real world interpersonal situations, and derive decisions from theories about communication effectiveness.

POLICIES AND EXPECTATIONS:

Exams
There are two essay exams in this class. The essay exams will cover the material discussed in lecture and the readings. The exams will consist of four essay questions each. It is important to note that the lectures will contain information not covered in the readings, and that not all the readings will be discussed in lecture. Thus, it is important to view all of the lectures and do all the readings.

Quizzes
Five quizzes will be administered on Carmen. The quizzes are designed to assess your understanding of the readings and audio lectures. Every other Wednesday, you will be required to take a quiz showing your mastery of the course content. The first quiz will be on Week 1 and the every other week re-sets after the Midterm Exam. All quizzes are announced and available on your weekly schedule. These quizzes cannot be made up and must be completed on Wednesday. Quizzes will open every other Wednesday at 12:00 AM EST and close at 11:59 PM EST. You have 24 hours to complete the quiz. The quizzes are non-cumulative, which means they will only cover two weeks of content at most. You have 20 minutes to answer 10 questions. You may use notes; however, the quizzes are timed allowing for minimal searching (2 minutes per question). The format of quizzes will be in one of two forms: multiple-choice and true/false questions. Questions will be presented one at a time and once the question is saved, you will be unable to revisit the question. Prepare accordingly.

Assignment-Activities
Eight assignments are designed to help you critically analyze knowledge about effective interpersonal communication skills and strategies. The assignments will typically require you to apply concepts from the textbook and/or analyze interpersonal communication strategies obtained from reading a blog/article or watching a video. All assignments should be double spaced, APA format and submitted by 11:59 PM EST on the Friday of the week assigned. No late work will be accepted. Excellent work on these activities define relevant course concepts and apply effective communication strategies to solve the posed communication problem or task; a specific description of each activity will be provided to students.

Reflective Writing Assignment
Students will complete an end-of-semester writing assignment that is designed to encourage reflecting thinking and analysis. Students may use their notes and readings while completing the assignment. The assignment is designed to allow students to 1) demonstrate their comprehension of the material; and 2) reflect on and integrate the knowledge they’ve gained throughout the semester. This assignment is worth 50 points and is due to Carmen by 11:59 PM EST on July 28th.

Late assignments
Late work is not accepted in this course without a medical documentation. If at all possible, arrangements need to be made prior to the assignment due date.
Grading scale
93–100: A
90–92.9: A-
87–89.9: B+
83–86.9: B
80–82.9: B-
77–79.9: C+
73–76.9: C
70 –72.9: C-
67 –69.9: D+
Below 60: E

Please note: Carmen, OSU’s grading and class management software, does not round fractions up. Please take that into account in computing grades. I have to make a cut at some point, so I just use Carmen to do that, and I don’t round up individual grades, no matter how close you may be, because it’s not fair to other students.

Faculty feedback and response time
I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-HELP at any time if you have a technical problem.)

Grading and feedback
For large weekly assignments, you can generally expect feedback within 7-10 days.

E-mail
I will reply to e-mails within 24 hours on school days. Emails received after 8 pm will not be answered until noon the following day.

Discussion board
I will check and reply to messages in the discussion boards every 24 hours on school days.

Attendance, participation, and discussions

Student participation requirements
Because this is a distance-education course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of everyone's expected participation:

- Online Lectures and Readings
  Please complete the assigned readings by Wednesday of each week. In addition to the reading, audio lectures will be provided to aid in your understanding of the content.
All audio lectures will be posted on Carmen on a weekly basis. Reading the textbook and listening to lectures are critical to your success on exams and assignments.

- Submissions and Emails:
  Since this is an online course, you are required to have online access on a frequent basis. All updates to the course will be announced via email and/or on Carmen. It is your responsibility to check these platforms regularly. Please carefully read the syllabus to keep up on due dates and responsibilities. Written assignments need to be submitted in .doc, .docx, or .pdf format. Files need to be saved as follows: lastnamedotnume_assignmenttitle. So if I were turning in assignment 1, the file would be saved as rader.175_assignment1. Failure to follow these directions will result in lost points. For consistency over the summer term, every written assignment will be due on the Friday of the week assigned. Quizzes will be administered every other Wednesday on Carmen. Email correspondence may be used to communicate with your instructor or TA. Emails should be written using standards of courtesy (e.g., address, proper tone, signature) or they will not receive a response. This is a communication course: Communicate effectively and professionally via email.

- Office hours:
  I am available to help you to learn, understand, and grow as individuals. If your question is something that you believe may be of interest to others in the class, please post to the “Course Q&A” discussion board. Office hours are digital via Carmen Connect.

Discussion and communication guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across online. I work very hard to provide a positive learning experience. Please keep this in mind and remain civilized and respectful in your email and discussion board communications. See the discussion guidelines posted in the module for expectations.

- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. (For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.)

Diversity
The School of Communication at The Ohio State University embraces and maintains an environment that respects diverse traditions, heritages, experiences, and people. Our commitment to diversity moves beyond mere tolerance to recognizing, understanding, and welcoming the contributions of diverse groups and the value group members possess as individuals. In our School, the faculty, students, and staff are dedicated to building a tradition of diversity with principles of equal opportunity, personal respect, and the intellectual interests of those who comprise diverse cultures.

Title IX
Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at http://titleix.osu.edu or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu

Academic integrity policy
Policies for this online course
- Assignments and quizzes: You must complete the assignments and quizzes yourself, without any external help or communication.
• Written assignments: Your written assignments, including discussion posts, should be your own original work. In formal assignments, you should follow APA style to cite the ideas and words of your research sources. You are encouraged to ask a trusted person to proofread your assignments before you turn them in--but no one else should revise or rewrite your work.

• Reusing past work: In general, you are prohibited in university courses from turning in work from a past class to your current class, even if you modify it. If you want to build on past research or revisit a topic you've explored in previous courses, please discuss the situation with me.

Academic Misconduct

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/

Accessibility accommodations for students with disabilities

Requesting accommodations

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know via email immediately so that we can privately discuss options. You are also welcome to register with Student Life Disability Services to establish reasonable accommodations. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion.
