How this course works

This course is organized in weekly modules. Lectures are face-to-face with prerecorded voice-over PowerPoint videos provided for convenience due to COVID recommendations regarding students who are feeling ill and are unable to attend a class due to illness. Additional videos are provided for analysis and used for several lessons or discussions. Initial discussion posts will always be due on Wednesday by 11:59. Replies to peers will always be due on Friday at 11:59. All assignments are due at 11:59 on the due dates listed on the schedule. Late discussion posts and assignments will not be accepted.

Exercises

Throughout the semester you will respond to 3 short-answer prompts. These short-answer exercises will require 100-300 words creatively and completely answering the prompt. The answer should provide analysis from the textbook reading and personal opinion. They are listed on the schedule as exercises. They are due by 11:59pm Friday. No late exercises will be accepted. No exceptions.

Discussions

There will be 7 individual discussions throughout the semester. Three discussions will give you an opportunity to converse with your classmates regarding public speaking topics. They are listed on the schedule as discussions and a prompt for each discussion will be provided. Discussions will include three written requirements. An initial post of 100-300 words will be due by 11:59pm on the Wednesday of the week a discussion is due. Two posts of 50-100 words responding to the initial posts of two other students will be due by 11:59 on the Friday of the week that discussion is due. Discussion posts should demonstrate 1. Understanding of the concept(s) in the material provided 2. Independent thought regarding the concepts and material 3. Thoughtful response to the work of at least 2 other students in the class. Four discussions will be peer feedback on speeches. You will upload your speech to the discussion forum. Four replies of 50-100 words commenting on each of the four speeches will be due by 11:59 on the Friday of the week that discussion is due. No late discussion post will be accepted. No exceptions.

Speech outlines

A full-sentence preparation outline as described in Chapter 11 of your textbook is to be turned in for the informative, marketing, and persuasive speeches. A specific purpose statement is required. Outlines must be in outline format. A reference page in APA format must be included. Upload the outline to the corresponding dropbox on Carmen by the due date.

Speeches

The self-introduction, informative and persuasive speeches will be delivered live in the classroom. The marketing speech will be delivered outside of the classroom via Zoom. Students will be divided into three groups that will present remotely during our regularly scheduled class time. Please check each speech individually for details on submitting.

Self-Introduction Speech

This assignment requires the use of an object or word to introduce yourself. The speech should be organized with a clear introduction, body, and conclusion and last between 1 and 3 minutes. This speech will give you the opportunity to get comfortable in front of the room and get familiar with your peers who will be your audience for the semester. You will participate in a discussion reviewing six peer speeches as part of this assignment. This speech will be delivered live in the classroom.

Informative Speech

In this speech you present information about a non-controversial topic with the goal of providing knowledge and understanding of the topic to your audience. The speech must be organized in chronological, spatial, or topical order. The speech requires the use of a visual which can be tactile, a handout, a video (of 30 seconds or less), or a PowerPoint (Google slides or Prezi are accepted as well). The speech must include 2 sources and be organized with 2 or 3 main points. The speech must fall within 3-4 minutes. You will participate in a discussion reviewing four peer speeches as part of this assignment. This speech will be delivered live in the classroom.

Marketing Speech

In this 3-4 minute speech you are acting like a marketer, salesperson, or promoter. Your purpose is to promote a product or app. The speech should be organized into two main points: problem and solution. The speech requires the use of a visual which can be tactile, a handout, a video (of 30 seconds or less), a PowerPoint (Google slides or Prezi are accepted as well), or you demonstrating the activity. The speech must include 2 sources. You will participate in a discussion reviewing four peer speeches as part of this assignment. This speech will be delivered live via Zoom. You will be divided into three small groups as audience members. The dates for this speech are listed on the schedule. You will be assigned to your small group several weeks prior to the speech date.

Persuasive Speech

In this speech your goal is to persuade your audience to make a change. You will share the need for change and provide a solution using one of the following four organizational methods: problem-solution, problem-cause-solution, comparative advantages, or Monroe's Motivated Sequence. You may choose a topic that is controversial, but you can also choose a topic that is not. The speech requires the use of a PowerPoint (Google slides or Prezi are accepted as well). The speech must include 4 sources. The speech must fall within 4-5 minutes. You will participate in a discussion reviewing four peer speeches as part of this assignment. This speech will be delivered live in the classroom.

Quizzes

Two quizzes will focus on assigned readings and lecture. Quizzes are on Carmen and are not open book or open note. There will be 25 questions and you will receive 1 minute per quiz question. Quiz questions will be multiple choice. Quiz questions will be randomized by topic and pulled from a text bank of hundreds of questions. Therefore, no two quizzes will look alike. You are required to take the quiz alone at the scheduled day and time online. The quiz will be open for a 24-hour period on the date listed on the schedule below starting at 12 a.m. and closing at 11:59 p.m. If you do not take the quiz, you will receive 0 points for the quiz. The quiz may only be made up when approved by the instructor for one of the following reasons: (a) the absence is a university excused activity, necessary documentation is provided, and arrangements for make-up are made in advance; or (b) the absence is due to a medical or family emergency, necessary documentation is provided, and arrangements for make up are made within 24 hours of the missed quiz. If the requirements for (a) or (b) are not fully met, you will receive 0 points for the quiz.

Late assignments

Late assignments will not be accepted.

Attendance, participation, and discussions

Credit hour and work expectation

This is a 3-credit-hour course. According to Ohio State policy, students should expect around 3 hours per week of time spent on direct instruction (instructor content and Carmen activities, for example) in addition to 6 hours of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example) to receive a grade of (C) average. ASC Honors provides an excellent guide to scheduling and study expectations.

Student participation requirements

Because this is a distance-education course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of everyone's expected participation:

- Logging in:
Be sure you are logging in to the course in Carmen each week, including weeks with holidays or weeks with minimal online course activity. I suggest logging in at least three times per week to make sure you are keeping up with announcements and course content. (During most weeks you will probably log in many times.) If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss it with me as soon as possible. Video and audio lectures will be posted on Monday.
- Participating in discussion forums:
As participation, you can expect to post at least once by Wednesday and respond at least once by Friday as part of our substantive class discussion. This requires that you will check in twice per week, however, additional participation will give you a richer experience within the course.

Faculty feedback and response time

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-HELP at any time if you have a technical problem.)

Grading and feedback

For speeches, you can generally expect feedback within 7-10 days.

E-mail

I will reply to e-mails within 24 hours on school days.

Discussion board

I will check and reply to messages in the discussion boards every 24 hours on school days.

Communications

I will post class updates and/or additional materials as announcements on Carmen and/or to your OSU email. Please check Carmen and read your email regularly (at least 2-3 times per week) because you are responsible for this information, just as you are responsible for information in class.

Challenging a Grade

I am always willing to discuss your grades with you, but I will not do so during class time. To challenge a grade, you must meet me during office hours or make an appointment within one week of the assignment being returned to you. When we meet, you must present your concerns in writing and attach the graded speech, paper, or exam. Please note that a challenge may result in grades being raised or lowered

Extra Credit

There will be no extra credit offered in this course.

Discussion and communication guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: While there is no need to participate in class discussions as if you were writing a research paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling, and punctuation. Informality (including an occasional emoticon) is fine for non-academic topics.
- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across online.
- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. (For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.)
- Backing up your work: Consider composing your academic posts in a word processor, where you can save your work, and then copying into the Carmen discussion.

Encouraging an optimal learning experience

Previous distance learning courses have provided insights from students on how to improve the learning experience and optimize outcomes. Here are a few tips from previous students to encourage your success in this online course:

- Students kept up with the schedule and assignment due dates.

- Students made sure they had access to a reliable internet connection.
- Students had access to at least one reliable device and a backup plan in case of a technological issue.
- Students have made plans to back up work. OSU provides free access to data storage through BuckeyeBox and Microsoft One Drive.
- Students reported that completing assigned readings before viewing lectures (or attending synchronous lectures) helped them to be prepared to follow along with lectures and participate in discussions.
- Students scheduled time to complete activities at a steady pace during the week. Keeping a schedule prevented a last-minute rush and kept the workload manageable.
- Students approached the material by thinking about the connections between readings, lectures, and assignments.
- Students followed the instructor's preference for camera and microphone settings during online synchronous meetings.
