Social Implications of Media Technologies

Online Summer 2022

Instructor: Austin Hubner

Email address: Hubner.9@osu.edu

Online office hours: Wednesdays 10-12 and by appointment

Course Description and Learning Goals

This is an upper-level course on the social implications of communication technology. We will cover many communication technologies such as social networking sites, online dating sites, video games, texting, mobile telephony, and virtual reality. We will also cover important issues that cut across multiple technologies, such as privacy, digital deception, and cyberbullying. At times, we consider the ways communication technology may affect society as a whole (e.g., the spread of fake news) as well as cases in which communication technologies affect their individual users (e.g., the connection between social media and mental health).

- Students will learn about the characteristics, functionality, and usage of communication technologies; a focus will be placed on identifying the unique properties of new communication technologies.
- Students will be able to explain the historical origin of the study of communication technology.
- Students will increase their knowledge of the effects of communication technology on ourselves and society.
- Students will apply existing theory and research findings to new media technologies.
- Students will develop strategies for using and managing communication technology in our daily lives.
- Students will build critical skills to analyze and interpret communication technologies and their messages.

Assignments

WEEKLY DISCUSSION POSTS. This is the only group-based assignment. Each week you will be expected to take part in class discussions within your assigned groups. Discussions will take place over the course of Wednesday through Friday each week. You are expected (from week 2 onwards) to be making One discussion post AND TWO responses per week. Prompts for discussion posts will be provided. You are expected to address ALL components of the prompt. You should not be looking to make a point based on your own thoughts and then leaving. Instead, you should seek to engage with what other group members are saying and responding to them. Initial posts are due by Wednesday 11:59pm and at least 2 response posts are due by Friday 11:59pm. Each discussion post does not need to be especially long. Your initial discussion posts are expected to be around 150 words. Each of your responses should not be less than 100 words. An excellent discussion post (and response) should demonstrate 1. Understanding of the concept(s) in the material provided 2. Independent thought regarding the concepts and material 3. Thoughtful response to the work of at least 2 other students in the class.

QUIZZES. Three quizzes will be administered on Carmen. The quizzes are designed to assess your understanding of the readings and audio lectures. The first quiz will be on Week 2. All quizzes are announced and available on your weekly schedule. These quizzes cannot be made up. Quizzes will open a week before the due dates. You have A WEEK to complete the quiz. The quizzes will be open book/notes and cover material from the textbook, other readings, and lecture. Some of the material on the quizzes may reappear on exams. The quizzes are non-cumulative. The quiz description in Carmen will state which material each quiz covers. You have 1 attempt to take each quiz, and quizzes are timed. Due dates are listed in the course calendar below.

REFLECTION PAPERS. You will complete three reflection assignments over the course of the semester. Due dates are listed in the course calendar below. You will need to cite any sources that you use for these assignments. Your reflections will be reported in a 2.5-page minimum double-spaced paper, complete with outside references. We will use APA style citations in this course (either the 6th or 7th edition is fine). An excellent submission will briefly explain the theory or concept and then go into depth, making a connection between the concept and a real-world application. A complete rubric and description for each will be provided on Carmen when the paper is assigned. Note that we can only grade what you have submitted. Double check before submitting your work.

EXAM. One exam will be delivered on Carmen to assess comprehension of reading and lecture materials at the end of the summer term. The exam will cover information from textbook readings, other readings, and lecture. They will feature some combination of multiple choice, true/false, and matching style questions. I will design the questions to assess your definitional understanding of course content and ability to accurately apply, interpret, and evaluate human communication and behavior through the lens of course concepts.

EXTRA CREDIT. Students may earn up to three points of extra credit by participating in the School of Communication's Communication Research Experience Program (C-REP). One hour of research participation is equal to one point of extra credit. A non-research participation alternative is also available if you do not wish to participate in studies or are ineligible to participate in a research study. The C-REP Summer 2020 Student Guide will be posted on Carmen as soon as it is available, and it has more details about research participation. If you want to obtain an alternate assignment or need to unlock your C-REP account, you will need contact the C-REP coordinator, Olivia Bullock, at bullock.181@osu.edu. Additional extra credit opportunities will be announced via Carmen throughout the term.

Late assignments

A 2-hour grace period is given for each assignment to ease any technology or personal issues that may arise. Late submissions for assignments will not incur a penalty during the grace period but will incur a 30% penalty each day the submission is late. The first day begins one minute after the grace period has ended, with an automatic loss of 30% of the points. Please do not email your paper to the professor or to the TA. We will open the assignment window for you so that you can upload it for the plagiarism check. It will not be counted as submitted until you have submitted it to Carmen. Additionally, you may use one “Freebie” during the summer session. This will allow you to turn in one assignment up to a week late with no penalty. In order to use your freebie, you must email the instructor within three days of the assignment due date.

You must have a medical excuse or a note from Carmen/Canvas staff documenting an actual Carmen/Canvas problem that would have affected your submission to have a paper or post accepted with no penalty after the assignment period closes.

 Note that this policy is only applicable to written assignments (Reflection papers and Discussion posts & responses). Late quizzes and exam are NOT accepted.

Grading scale

93–100: A
90–92.9: A-
87–89.9: B+
83–86.9: B
80–82.9: B-
77–79.9: C+
73–76.9: C
70 –72.9: C-
67 –69.9: D+
Below 60: E

Please note: Carmen Canvas, OSU’s grading and class management software, does not round fractions up. Please take that into account in computing grades. I do not manually round up grades. There will be opportunities for extra credit for students who choose to earn those points.

Faculty feedback and response time

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-HELP at any time if you have a technical problem.)

Communicating with the Instructor

Email In general, students should refer first to the course syllabus and Carmen for due dates, assignment details, and other course information. Please reserve email messages for extenuating circumstances and points of administrative concern. Please do NOT use Carmen messaging for communicating, as I do not check this regularly, and it is unreliable.

I expect professionalism from your emails: You need to politely address me, include a subject line, use respectful languages, and sign your name at the end. In any email communication, students must put "COMM 3554" in the subject line and demonstrate professional courtesy in their message. I will respond once to emails that do not meet this standard and let you know what needs to be improved. Subsequent unprofessional emails will not receive a response.

Generally, you can expect me to reply to emails within 24 hours on weekdays. I may take up to 48 hours to respond on weekends. I will let you know if there are any circumstances that affect my ability to respond to emails for a particular week.

Grading and feedback

For large weekly assignments, you can generally expect feedback within 7-10 days.

Attendance, participation, and discussions

Student participation

Because this is a distance-education course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of everyone's expected participation:

- Viewing lectures: MODULES POSTED ON CARMEN ONCE PER WEEK
Recorded lectures and materials will be released on Carmen on Mondays.
The lectures start with a video overview of course materials followed by text materials. The videos are short to provide the most optimal viewing experience and to increase attention and engagement. Text materials are provided for your convenience so that you can always come back and review. The lectures should be viewed within the week to be sure you are up to date with the course materials.
- Office hours:
I am available to help you to learn, understand, and grow as individuals. Office hours are virtual via Zoom.

Discussion and communication guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across online. The instructor and TA both work very hard to provide a positive learning experience. Please keep this in mind and remain civilized and respectful in your email and discussion board communications.
- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. (For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.)

Diversity

The School of Communication at The Ohio State University embraces and maintains an environment that respects diverse traditions, heritages, experiences, and people. Our commitment to diversity moves beyond mere tolerance to recognizing, understanding, and welcoming the contributions of diverse groups and the value group members possess as individuals. In our School, the faculty, students, and staff are dedicated to building a tradition of diversity with principles of equal opportunity, personal respect, and the intellectual interests of those who comprise diverse cultures.

Title IX

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu

Academic integrity policy

Policies for this online course

- Written assignments: Your written assignments, including discussion posts, should be your own original work. In formal assignments, you should follow APA style to cite the ideas and words of your research sources. You are encouraged to ask a trusted person to proofread your assignments before you turn them in--but no one else should revise or rewrite your work.
- Reusing past work: In general, you are prohibited in university courses from turning in work from a past class to your current class, even if you modify it. If you want to build on past research or revisit a topic you've explored in previous courses, please discuss the situation with me.
- Falsifying research or results: All research you will conduct in this course is intended to be a learning experience; you should never feel tempted to make your results or your library research look more successful than it was.

Academic Misconduct

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>

Accessibility accommodations for students with disabilities

Requesting accommodations

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know via email immediately so that we can privately discuss options. You are also welcomed to register with Student Life Disability Services to establish reasonable accommodations. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu ; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu ; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.
